Gov't calls unilateral ceasefire with Reds

MANILA (AP) — President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo today called for a unilateral ceasefire by the Communist Party of the Philippines (CPP) and its armed wing, the New People's Army (NPA), in the wake of a series of attacks on government forces.

Arroyo said the government was prepared to engage in peace talks with the CPP and NPA, but only if they agreed to a unilateral ceasefire first.

The president said the government was not interested in a ceasefire that would allow the CPP and NPA to continue their operations without any restrictions.

GMA ally says Ramos remark destabilizing

By J. Edgar S. Reyes

Manila (PNA) — A GMA ally says that the remark by President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo's ally, Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile, that the president is a "puppet" of the military, is destabilizing.

The senator, who is a close ally of the president, said that the remark is "destabilizing" and "destroys the credibility of the president."

Enrile's remark came after a report that the president had ordered the arrest of Sen. Enrile's brother, Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile, who is a close ally of the president.

S. Korea panel says stem-cell result fabricated

SHOPS.—SOUTH KOREAN SHOPPERS WOULD RATHER GO OUT ON the weekend to Prater and watch live performances after shopping and results in a landmark 25th year in producing popular culture events were increasingly interested.

A good thing is that, I usually do the laundry by hand. I hang the wet clothes up and in 15 minutes, the clothes are dry. I don't have to use a dryer.

It is important to realize that, in this case, the two measures are not equally fundamental. The two measures have only in common the following two major properties: the uniformity of the distribution of the measure, and the fact that the two measures are not equal.

These findings have a number of implications for the design of training and development programs. First, the results suggest that training should be tailored to the specific needs of the organization and its employees. Second, the results suggest that training should be ongoing and continuous, rather than a one-time event. Third, the results suggest that training should be evaluated to ensure that it is effective and that it is meeting the needs of the organization and its employees.

There is much more information available on the Internet, and it is important to use it wisely. Many of the sites are not as reliable as the ones on the printed page. It is important to use the information to make a decision, not to make a decision.

However, the most serious threat to the water supply is high water levels in the reservoirs and rivers.

The study has several strengths. First, this is the first study to examine the relationship between the use of the Internet and the use of the telephone for health-related information. Second, the study used a nationally representative sample of adults. Third, the study used a validated measure of the use of the Internet for health-related information. Fourth, the study used a validated measure of the use of the telephone for health-related information. Finally, the study used a validated measure of the use of the Internet for health-related information.

Japan OKs P1.2-B aid to ARMM projects

Gov't promises counterpart funding

By MARIANO LOPEZ

MANILA, Sept. 23 (Inquirer.net) — The Japanese government has agreed to provide a 1.2-billion-yen (about $100 million) loan to the Philippine government to fund projects in the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM).

The loan, which is part of a larger $1 billion aid package, will be used to fund projects in the ARMM, including the construction of roads, bridges, and schools.

The Japanese government also agreed to provide technical assistance to the Philippine government in the form of training and consulting services.

The Philippine government has agreed to provide counterpart funding for the loan, which is expected to be disbursed over a period of five years.

The loan is part of a larger aid package that includes a $1 billion grant and a $1 billion loan.
